MD'S CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

1. Be Responsible

- Follow Classroom Rules and Holy Family Points of Pride.
- Take care of personal and school property.

2. Be Respectful

- Treat others in a way that honors God.
- Listen with eye contact.
- Make positive statements about others and yourself.
- See yourself and others through God's eyes!!!

3. Be Ready

- Be on time.
- Be prepared with all necessary materials.
- Complete assignments on time.

ROOM 13 CLASSROOM RULES

1. Follow directions carefully.
2. Get permission to walk and talk.
3. Make smart choices.
4. Make your learning community happy.
5. Eyes on the target.

IF A STUDENT CHOOSES TO BREAK A RULE

First time the student decides to break a rule, the teacher will write his/her name down on the class clipboard, the date, and what rule the student chose to break.

Second time the student decides to break a rule during the same class period, the student will receive a check mark next to his/her name and the teacher will write down on the clipboard what rule the student chose to break.

Third time the student decides to break a rule during the same class period, the student will receive a written assignment from the teacher. The student will complete the assignment and send it to Miss Dornbos mdornbos@hfssb.org or Mrs. Kuczmanski mkuczmanski@hfssb.org via email. Miss Dornbos or Mrs. Kuczmanski will also email the parent/guardian to inform them of the written assignment.

Students begin each class with a clean slate.

A serious singular violation of classroom rules and/or school rules will also result in a detention.
